The Indiscretions of Archie

It wasn't Archie's fault really. It's true he went to America and fell in love with Lucille, the daughter of a millionaire hotel proprietor and if he did marry her− well, what else was there to do?

From his point of view, the whole thing was a thoroughly good egg; but Mr. Brewster, his father−in−law, thought differently, Archie had neither money nor occupation, which was distasteful in the eyes of the industrious Mr. Brewster; but the real bar was the fact that he had once adversely criticised one of his hotels.

Archie does his best to heal the breach; but, being something of an ass, genus priceless, he finds it almost beyond his powers to placate "the man−eating fish" whom Providence has given him as a father−in−law. (Summary from the Gutenberg text)
